THE DESMONTEGADA

Festival for the return of the animals from their summer pastures

Nature and traditions in the Stelvio National Park!

In Val di Peio you can relive the traditional moments of the local farmer: sheep shearing, milking the goats and the festival for the return of the animals from their summer pastures. Of course, don't miss this opportunity to taste the local products.

Thursday 17.09: The "desmontegada" and the "tosada" (sheep shearing) in Peio Paese

9am: Guided excursion to the Covol mountain dairy to accompany the return of the sheep flocks.

1pm: sheep shearing and wool-working demonstration.

Friday 18.09: The cattle market and the traditional market in Cogolo.

Saturday 19.09: Guided excursion to the visitors center to Talé mountain dairy "The forest of the wood grouse", goat milking and local product tasting.

Sunday 20.09: The return of the cows in Cogolo.
